CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION

A. Title Affirmation

In order to avoid misunderstanding in understanding and interpreting a thesis title, it is necessary to confirm the meaning of some words which are the title of this thesis. The title of the thesis is The Influence of Using Canva Towards Students' writing Announcement text Ability. The descriptions of the meanings of several terms contained in the title are as follows :

Based on Oxford dictionary, influence is the effect that has on the way a person thinks or behaves or on the way that works or develops. Influence is the power that has to make behave in a particular way or a person or thing that affects the way a person behaves and thinks.¹

According to Matt Mansfield "Canva is a tool loaded with enough easy-to-use features and functionality that anyone can create a variety of engaging content that gets shared". So, Canva can be used for learning English in writing.²

Based on Oxford dictionary, writing is the activity of writing, in contrast to reading, speaking, etc. Writing is the activity of writing books, article, etc especially as a job. And writing is a words that have been written or painted.³

Announcement is a statement in spoken or written form that makes something known publicly. This is in line with batubara who states that announcement is something spoken or written aimed data announcing the important information to the readers or listeners.

Therefore, announcement functions to inform people what has happened or what will happen.⁴

A text is a both a spoken text and written text.⁵ In addition to, in a text contain of meaning morpheme, phrase, clause, sentence and discourse or another linguistic unit. Based on the explanation above, the reseacher was purposes the research about The Influence of Using Canva Towards Students' Writing Announcement Text Ability at the Tenth Grade.

B. Background of the Problem

Language is the main communication tool, and communication almost always takes place in a kind of social context. For example communicating with the surrounding environment. Everyone uses language to communicate and understand the mind, but in addition to communicating language is one aspect for learning, especially foreign languages. In general, the foreign language used is English. English language consists of four skills listening, reading, speaking and writing. In this research, researcher focuses on writing. Writing is an inseparable skill students have to improve while studying foreign languages.

Furthermore, writing seems to be the most difficult one in the sense that it needs a long process starting from brainstorming up to final product. Writing is a skill in which we express ideas, feelings, and thoughts that are arranged in words, sentence and paragraph by using eyes, brain and hand.⁶ It means that writing is used to express someone's feelings and ideas. To accomplish that, brain would be used to produce idea, hand to write, and eyes for looking at the result of writing.

According to Sutanto, writing is as a process of expressing idea our thoughts in words that should be done at our leisure. It can be very enjoyable as long as we have the ideas and the means to achieve it.⁷ Thus, writing is an enjoyable activity as long as writer can generate idea in her/his writing.

In teaching writing, the teacher should be able to get the students' attention and should be creative. Harmer says that by far the most important reason for teaching writing of course is that a basic of language skills.⁸ In other words, the role of the teacher is very important to help the students in mastering the writing skill. Teaching writing is important because writing helps students in delivering some messages in written form. In line with Siahaan, writing is psychological activity of the language user to put information in the writing text.⁹ It means that writing is skill of a writer to communicate information to readers. Therefore, teacher should have interesting strategy to make the students more interest or active in writing and can involve the students to write independently.

In teaching writing, they are some materials, one of them is short functional text. Short functional text is writing meant to help the reader accomplish an everyday task. The example of short functional text are invitation, greeting card, announcement, label, notice, short message, advertisement, personal letter, graphic, caution and others. Short functional text may be seen as the easy material for the students since they meet the text in their daily life. But the difference is the language. The main concern is give the students knowledge about the function of short functional text itself and how to write it well. It prepares the student work at international company public facilities.

In fact, many students found difficulties in writing, because they did not know how to express their idea well. Mostly, people consider that writing is one of difficult skills because it is a complex skill. The students must master vocabulary, grammar and the others. In addition, if they found difficulties in understanding the aspects of writing they found complexities in writing. Those problems are also found at SMA Negeri 1 Bungamayang. Many students at SMA Negeri 1 Bungamayang, Lampung Utara faced difficulties in writing.

Based on the preliminary research in SMA Negeri 1 Bungamayang, Lampung Utara especially the Tenth grade, have difficulties in understand short functional text, especially announcement text. The teacher said “In the classroom when learning for writing skill, especially text announcement, students are very lacking. Most of their scores are below the criteria of minimum mastery (KKM)”. The teacher realized that during the learning process in writing announcement text, it was not attract the attention of the students because she did not use good media and techniques to increase students' learning motivation. And also the teacher said that not only difficulties in teaching that she faced but from herself the students also had deficiencies in vocabulary, grammar and others. In the classroom, the students are often confused and feel bored because they do not know how to express their ideas and convey them properly. So they still have difficulties in writing the announcement text correctly. It can be seen in Table 1 :

Source: The Score Data from English Teacher of SMA Negeri 1 Bungamayang, Lampung Utara in the Academic Year of 2021/2021

From 129 students, there were 2 students (1.55%) who got score in excellent to very good criteria, 39 students (30.23%) who got score in good to average criteria, 57 students (44.18%) who got score fair to poor criteria, and 31 students (24.03%) who got score in very poor criteria. It means that the students of the eleventh grade at SMA Negeri 1 Bungamayang, Lampung Utara, as from 129 students of tenth grade only 41 students (31.78%) who got score above criteria and 88 students (68.21%) who got score under criteria. It can be concluded that the students of the tenth grade at SMA Negeri 1 Bungamayang, Lampung Utara, still have difficulty in writing. It means that the English teacher must find some ways how to make students' writing ability better than before.

In this case, the teacher should have new technique and media in teaching learning process in order to make the students more creative and easier to develop their ideas especially in writing. Teacher should use the appropriate application that can be used to help them to increase their participation in the class, and make them interested in writing. There are many application that can be applied in teaching writing, one of them are Canva Application.

According to Matt Mansfield "Canva is a tool loaded with enough easy-to-use features and functionality that anyone can create a variety of engaging content that gets shared".¹⁰ So, Canva can be used for learning English in writing. For example, in writing there is a material about announcement, students can use canva to make brochure, flyer, and greeting card with exploring students' creativity.

In this case, that Canva Application can help students construct their own knowledge. So that, the students understanding of the concepts is better. In addition to using Canva, the author also uses the Peer Correction technique to support success canva app as an interesting medium in improving the writing of text announcements. This technique is applied to help the students in organizing their ideas. In addition, it allows the students to share and exchange their ideas or information to be corrected by their peers in a pair group discussion . thus by correcting each others' work, students can gain their critically analytically thinking. Students also may gain their confidence and interested since their writing is corrected by their peers. Besides, the students can also take part actively. By applying the Peer Correction Technique in writing analytical exposition text, the teacher can reach the goal of teaching analytical exposition text to senior high school students. In other words, this technique can help teacher in teaching writing analytical exposition text to the students.

The last is by Eka Rahmasari and Dameria Magdalena Sidabalok that entitled "Peer Correction by Using Google Docs in Descriptive Text Writing". The results of the research show that the students are extremely interested to peer-correction activities through Google Docs, and they felt that utilizing Google Docs was a powerful method to encourage their learning process. Their learning circumstance was viewed as progressively favorable, when they discussing, giving comment, and revising their texts. They did those exercises without talking one another, so it did not create any loud. They also considered that this kind of learning process merits continuing.

FRAME OF THE THEORY AND HYPOTHESES

A. Frame Theories

1. Writing

There are some theories about concept of writing, writing process, writing ability, and teaching writing.

a. Concept of Writing

Writing is one way to send the message or information from writer to the reader. Siahaan said that the skill aims to communicate information to reader, her or his skill is also realized by her or his ability to apply rules of the language, they are writing to transfer the information, and she or he has in her or his mind to her or his readers effectively.¹¹ It means that writing is one of manner to convey information to the others in writing form.

Meanwhile, writing is language skill that involves language production and therefore often referred to as productive skill.¹² Hyland adds that writing is seen as a product constructed from the researchers command of grammatical and lexical knowledge.¹³ Thus, writing is a result that is gotten by a process to construct some aspects of writing like grammatical and writers knowledge or experience. In writing skill, the students should be able to produce the language based on the writing rules.

Besides, writing is one of four skills in English that must be mastered by students. Writing is the language skill used least by most people. It also a skill usually learnt formally at school, and not handled well by many people.¹⁴ It means that writing is one of English skill that is used by many people and it becomes one of the subjects which is learned by the students school.

¹¹ Sanggam Siahaan, The English Paragraph (Yogyakarta: Candi Gerbang Permai, 2008). p.12

¹² Jeremy Harmer, The Practice of English Language Teaching (New York: Longman Publishing, 2006). p.16

Based on those statements, the researcher concluded that writing is productive skill to express the idea in writing in order to deliver message to the readers. Because writing is not only unrelated sentences or words, but also have to be careful and concern about grammatical, so the message of the writing can be caught correctly by readers.

b. Process of Writing

Writing is activity to express and put on the ideas or thought on written form. It can be said that when we are trying to write something, we need some steps. Writing is a progressive activity. It means that when we first write something down, we have already been thinking about what we are going to say and how we are going to say it. It can be concluded that writing is never a one step action, or in other words it is a process that has several steps.

Harmer states that writing process is divided into four stages.

They are:

1) Planning

Experienced researcher plan what they are going to write. Before starting to write or type, they try and decide what it is they are going to say. For some researcher this may involve making detail notes. When planning, researcher have to think about three main issues. In the first, place, they have to consider the purpose of their writing, the audience they are writing for, and the content structure of the piece.

2) Drafting

¹⁴ Paul Davies, Success in English Teaching (New York: Oxford University Press, 2002).

We can refer to the first version of a piece of writing as a draft. This first 'go' at a text is often done on assumption that it will be amended later. As the writing process proceeds into editing, a number of drafts may be produced on the way to the final version.

3) Editing (reflecting and revising)

Once a researcher has produced a draft they then, usually, read through what they have written to see where it works and where it doesn't.

4) Final Version

Once a researcher has edited their draft, making the changes they consider to be necessary, they produce their final version.¹⁵

These explanations above show that there are four steps in the writing process that should be done if someone wants to write clearly: start from planning, drafting, editing, and the last final version. The writing process provides the students a series of planned learning experiences to help them understand the nature of writing at every point. Therefore, the process of writing is important to create a better writing and it can increase the writer's positive attitude toward writing.

c. Concept of Writing Ability

Writing ability is the skill of a writer to communicate information to a reader or group of readers.¹⁶ Consecutively, writing ability is an ability to convey ideas between the reader and writer. Many people say that writing is a difficult skill. It is because this skill can not be achieved in a short time. This skill belongs to difficult since the writer must attend to some aspects like content, grammatical, vocabulary, and others.

¹⁵ Jeremy Harmer, How to Teach Writing (New York: Longman, 2009). p. 3-5

¹⁶ Sanggam Siahaan, Issues in Linguistics (Yogyakarta.: Graha Ilmu, 2008). p.

According to Heaton, five major aspects are accompanied by explicit description of what is meant by the different band-scales.¹⁷ The criteria of good writing are :

- 1) Content (the ability to think creatively and develop thoughts).
- 2) Organization (the ability to write in appropriate manner)
- 3) Vocabulary (the ability to use of word/idiom)
- 4) Language use (the ability to write appropriate structure)
- 5) Mechanic (the ability to use punctuation, capitalization, spelling, and layout correctly).

From those statements, it can be concluded that writing has five components: content, grammar, organization, vocabulary, and mechanic. Those components should be attended by researcher to get good writing and to get ability in produce written skill. Then to produce good writing, the writer should study hard and practice more so that the readers can understand the written form that is produced.

d. Purpose of Writing

According to Braine and May defined four common purposes in writing, there are ; writing to inform, writing to explain, writing to persuade, and writing to amuse others. First, writing to inform purposed to educate the readers about a topic of which we have some knowledge. Writing that provides interesting details and facts to hold an audience's attention. It means that writers share interest knowledge to readers know. Second, writing to explain is to describe the topic which was not clearly becomes more understand able, by using examples or other facts. In other words, a writer takes what is unclear and makes it clear. Then, writing to persuade is more demanding and more ambitious than many other types of writing. It means that writers convince the readers to accept the ideas.

¹⁷ J.B. Heaton, Writing English Language Test (New York: Longman, 1988). p. 135

The last, writing to amuse other means someone who uses language and established forms well to express his or her point of view. It is writing to entertain and give the reader something to enjoy.¹⁸

Based on the statements above, the researcher concluded that writing has a purpose to be conveyed to the reader. Braine and May argue that the purpose of writing is to inform, explain, persuade, and entertain others.¹⁹

2. Text

a. Definition of Text

According to Siahaan and Shinoda, text is a meaningful linguistic unit in a context.²⁰ The text means that text is not always in written form. It can be spoken text, not always in printed form because it can be a word or as thick as a book. When the words put together although spoken or written but the meaning is to communicate meaning, the text is created.

Text is valuable of communication rather than sentence.²¹ The text aims at convincing the reader to know the purpose, and giving him information. When we use language for various purpose, numerous of text is resulted. There were many several of text types, so the text types that were given to the student were various, such as narrative, recount, procedural, functional, and descriptive. The important thing about text is text should be communicative to convey the meaning. In conclusion, text is a product of language not only about words or sentence but also convey about the meaning on it because it can be written or spoken.

b. Definition of Short Functional Text

According to Cameron and Myers, functional text is a text which has the purpose to give the reader specific information or to help the reader performs a day to day task.²² It means that functional text is generally a text used for a specific purpose. It is not only gives information but also to described in daily life.

Anderson and Anderson state that functional text is used for everyday information. It presents information or ideas and aims to show, to tell or to persuade the readers. It is called functional because it helps the reader function in their day life.²³ It means that short functional text as a text informational text which help the information receivers or readers grasp the information quickly.

For the explanation above, short functional text can be describe as a kind of the text which has specific information or ideas and helps the reader in specific topics or areas on their daily life. This kind of text kind be found anywhere in the school, streets, even around the house. However may not be well aware since they don't have much exposure and knowledge to this kind of text.

c. Types of short functional text

In general, there are several aspects of short functional text such as characteristics and the various types of it. The text uses clear, simple, and concise sentence. In addition, it can contain pictures of symbols, and uses particular words the letter. Some types of short functional texts are meant to give the reader information or instruction, or ask the reader to provide information while some do both.

²² Cameron S, and Myers, comprehending functional text: instruction,practice, assesment. Quincy, IL: Mark Twain Media, (2013). p. iii

²³ Mark Anderson. And Kathy Anderson, Text Types in English (South Melbourne: Macmilan Education Australia, 1997).

There are many types of short functional text can be around us. Aryati stated that type of short functional text has seven types, such as:

- 1) Announcement
An announcement is a statement addressed to public to provide information that something has happened or is going to happen
- 2) Advertisement
Advertisement can be defined as typical information used to persuade audience (readers or listeners) to do something or to take some action.
- 3) Memo
Memo is used to convey some basic information, particularly to persuade action, to issue a directive, or to provide a report.
- 4) Invitation letters
An invitation is a type of letter which is written to invite a guest to a particular event or celebration.
- 5) Label
Labels function to communicate product-specific information to the consumers and encourage a purchase.
- 6) Postcard
Postcard or postal card can be defined as a small, usually having a picture on one side and space for a short message on the other for sending a message by post without an envelope.
- 7) Notice
Notice is a symbol or text to inform or instruct people to do or not to do anything.²⁴

Based on explanation above that types of short functional text has several types such as announcement,

²⁴ Aryati Prasetyarini, “Short Functional Text”. Modal Bahasa Inggris, Surakarta: Muhammadiyah University Vol. 1, No. 2 (2013): 2.

advertisement, memo, invitation, label, postcard, and notice. The researcher focused at announcement text in short functional text to teach writing ability. The researcher focused on announcement to teaching writing in short functional text because announcement text exist in syllabus.

d. Concept of Announcement

An announcement is a statement addressed to public to provide information that something has happened or is going to happen. This type of Short Functional text is commonly found in the public place or media, respectively, such as at school (on an announcement board), a newspaper, megazine, a window of a shop , a city park, etc.

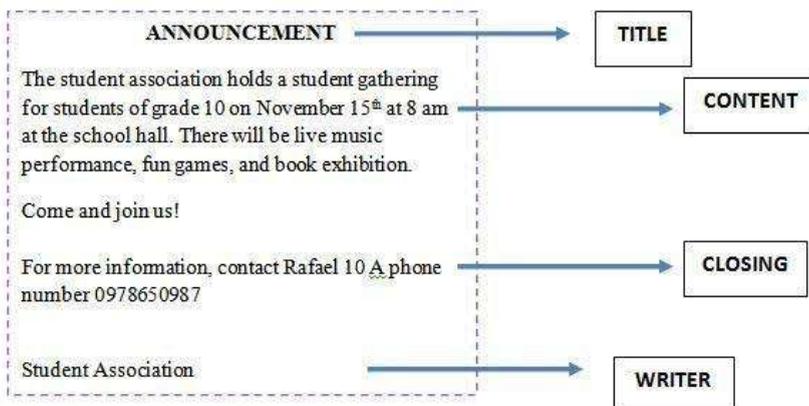

Announcement has the following generic structure :

- 1) Head (the title or type of event)
- 2) Body or content (date, place, program, address, contact person, etc)
- 3) Closing (for more information)
- 4) Writer (someone or an instruction who make the announcement)²⁵

It means that to make announcement text, the researcher must be following generic structure of announcement text. There is four kinds such as head body or content, closing and writer.

The following is the example :

Announcement is short functional text is to provide students with reminders and updates especially junior high school. Based on the example above means that an announcement reminding students to select students organization from what the contents of announcements.

Based on the explanation above, it means announcement tests give the students knowledge about the function of announcement in short functional text. The students get information from announcement and also know how to write it well. Announcement in short functional text has criteria which as the writer should understand about it. It is the language features of announcement in short functional text, such as head, body or content, closing and writer.

e. The Kinds of Announcement

Based on the use of language and the announcement comes from, there are two kinds of announcement:²⁶

1) Formal Announcement

Formal announcement is a kind of announcement that uses formal language, usually this announcement is an announcement from office, and others. For the example is changing shift at works, teacher and parent meeting at school, commemorate a certain day.

²⁶Primbon Febriana, Kinds of Announcement. <http://febrinapn.blogspot.com/2011/01/announcement.html>. Accessed on November 19, 2021

2) Informal Announcement

Informal announcement is a kind of announcement that use informal or daily language, usually this announcement is from personal, and others. For example is missing person, party, job vacancy and other.

Based on the way to make, there are two kinds of announcement :

1. Written announcement

Written announcement is a kind of announcement that is made by written.

2. Oral Announcement

Oral announcement is a kind of announcement that is directly said by the announcer.

From the definition above, can concluded that announcement is a statement in spoken written form that makes something known publicly. It could be kind of information or news. An announcement should answer what, when, where, and who. Often it includes why and how. The examples of announcement about giving the news of birth, a wedding, or other events

In this study, the researcher was used written announcement as a instrument in data collecting to know students ability in writing announcement text using canva application and peer correction technique.

e. Concept of Announcement in Short Functional Text Writing Ability

Writing is defined a productive written language skill. Siahaan states that writing is the skill of a writer to communicate information to a reader or group readers. It means that we must have ability to express our ideas and thoughts in our writing clearly.

Writing ability is the skill to express ideas, thoughts, and feeling to other people on written symbols to make other people or readers understand the ideas conveyed. It means that is a way of sharing personal meanings and emphasize the power of the personality to construct someone's view based on certain topic. There are five aspects of writing are as the criteria of good writing, it is content, organization, vocabulary, language use, and mechanics.

Short functional text is used for everyday information. It present information or ideas and aims to show, to tell or to persuade the readers. It is called functional because it helps the readers function in their day life.²⁷ It means that short functional text as types of informational text when help the information receivers or readers get the information quickly.

Announcement is public or formal notice announcing something. Announcement also called a short message. In teaching writing especially in senior high school, there is material about announcement in short functional text. It is as the easy material for the students because they meet the text in their daily life.

Based on the explanation above, it can be concluded that announcement in short functional text writing ability is to produce a written language in the form of the text to express ideas, thoughts, and feeling to other people in the form of announcement is to provide complete and clear information that can help the information receivers or readers get the information quickly in their daily life which fulfills such criteria of task fulfillment as content, organization, vocabulary, language use and mechanics

3. Concept of Canva Application

Canva is one of the digital practical technology, it is a nice tool for designing infographics, collages, flyers, and slides in a web browser or on your I-pad. Canva is providing the world a simple new way to create beautiful design not only that we can choose from over one million images, thousands of customizable layouts, easy photo editing, we can collaborate with anyone and anywhere. Not only teacher can use canva but also bloggers, marketers, businesses, and of course students can use this application.

Canva is easy to do, first we just installed after that create an account, search what templete that we need to suitable with our topic, next we can layouts and give a text after we can change the background of templete and the last we can uploads our design in social media or just give the task to the teacher by e-mail or whatsapp.

Canva can be installed in mobile phone or in PC, the students use canva in their mobile phone because it is easy to use and more flexible when it is use in the class. The teacher can make a group of students therefore the students can work in a group, that very helpful for the students especially if one or more students don't have mobile phone, they can see and practice this application from another students.²⁸

a. Definiton of Canva Application

Canva application is digital posters that can have a positive influence on the learning process. Some of the reasons outlined above have attracted the attention of the author to use digital posters as a medium used in the delivery of lessons. The use of digital posters through canvas applications as a media in teaching writing in English subjects is expected to be able to attract the attention of students because there are many choices of poster models with attractive and contemporary models and colors, and have a special appeal in the form of varied images that make it easier for students to understand vocabulary.²⁹ It means that when using learning media such as this digital poster is expected to create interest and creativity, and motivation of students in learning writing skills so that students can benefit the maximum both from the process and the learning outcomes.

According to Mukarromah Canva is the one application that provided for the user around the world. The students' have new ways or a new method by using this application, so the students more interesting and not only to improve their writing skill but the other benefit they can more creative by making their design that relate with their task. For example, they can use Canva for making a story about their past experiences, so they can add the feature that related to their experience by adding the picture or diagram or something else.³⁰ It means that canva can improve their writing skill and they can express their ideas more creatively by making their design that relate with their task.

According to Matt Mansfield—say that “Canva is a tool loaded with enough easy-to-use features and functionality that anyone can create a variety of engaging content that gets shared”.³¹ So, Canva can be used for learning English in writing. For example, in writing there is a material about advertisement, students can use canva to make brochure, flyer, and greeting card with exploring students' creativity.

All in all, most research studies in technology media conducted in English as a Foreign Language (EFL) classes rarely take the application of Canva specifically to the writing process into consideration. We can refer to Wahyuni and Thohiriyah who reviewed Canva as the infographic tool in presenting the teaching materials, among the existing research studies in this field. The study results showed that Canva offers different themes and professional layouts to create the compelling infographic for presenting the teaching materials. It is also a simple tool that is extremely user friendly.³² It should be noted that their research only focused on infographics and they did not incorporate the use of Canva as a language learning media.

Therefore, this study intends to find out whether there were any statistically significant differences between the use of Canva and nonCanva on the students' writing performance. Besides, this study also tries to find out the students' voices towards the implementation of Canva in teaching writing.

b. Procedure of Canva Application

Based on the writer's experiences to teach functional text using Canva Application, some hints can be suggested. The procedure is :

1. First of all, the students should be divided into group, each of which consisting of 5 students. Then, they should install the application in their own smartphone.
2. The next step is the teacher gives them some explanation about the use of Canva Application and how it works. Additionally, the teacher should also ask the students to install Google translate in their mobile phone. The purpose of this digital dictionary is to help the students look up difficult words. But if they bring their own dictionary they can use it.

3. Finally the teacher can share kinds of text to the students and assign writing tasks.
4. For example the students choose a topic about how to make fried noodle. A group of students may discuss what is the procedure to make fried noodle. Then they can select some templates from Canva Application and make some creative background before they change the text into a procedure of cooking fried noodle. Each group with a different topic in writing can choose a topic based on the teacher's guide. The students can collaborate with another group to make a different procedure if they choose the same topic and the same templates. They can also use their photos to make a different background with the others. Finally, they can collect their creativity in canva's writing via Whatsapp.³³

4. Peer Correction

a. Definition peer correction.

Purwanto states that peer-correction technique refers to the activity or activity of the student in reading his friend's writing then makes a response (in the form of correction) in his position as a reader.³⁴

According Suryani discussion relating to peer-correction, basically this technique refers to the activities or activities of students in reading the writings of his friends then make a response in the form of correction in his position as a reader. By using his technique, it is possible to improve the writing ability of students and also the development of

³³ "A DIGITAL PRACTICAL APPLICATION IN TEACHING FUNCTIONAL TEXT; CANVA."

³⁴ Purwanto, "Anak Kampus: Model Pembelajaran Peer-Correction," Anak Kampus (blog), August 3, 2016, <https://lobikampus.blogspot.com/2016/08/model-pembelajaran-peer-correction.html>.

students' sensitivity to become critical reader so as to encourage students to be able to communicate through written media properly and correctly.³⁵

Also, Zemach and Rumisek state that peer correction is the activity that changes students' work by asking them to read and comment on their classmates' writing. After the writing stage is completed, they exchange their writing with their classmate. The students can write directly on their classmate's paper and suggest to improve their classmate's writing.³⁶

By using peer-correction techniques, student can find and find out what their peers are doing. Students will have an opportunity to take part actively to try, locate, and correct their friends faults so as to enable students to be more in the process of learning not dominated by teachers.

The conclusion of the above explain relating to peer correction technique is this technique refers to activity of student activity in reading her friend's writing, then make response in the form of correction in position as reader. By using this technique, it is possible to realize the writing ability of the students and also the development of students' sensitivity to become critical readers so as to encourage students to communicate through written media properly and correctly.

With students looking for and determining errors in a classroom, students will have an opportunity to take an active part to try, locate, and correct their peers' errors to enable students to be better able to take a larger portion of the learning process. In this activity the weaker students can learn a lot on the more capable students among their peers. In addition, what is delivered by peers will be more easily accepted and digested than the teacher who delivered.

b. The Advantages of Peer Correction Technique

There are some advantages :

1. Peer correction enables the students to correct paragraphs.
2. Peer correction enables the students to work together with a classmate
3. This technique encourages students to be more active in class.
4. Peer correction also allowed the students to think critically.
5. Peer-correction technique improved the students' ability in writing.³⁷

c. The Disadvantages of Peer-correction

There were two disadvantages or lacks in applying this technique :

1. The lecturer's correction was better than the classmate's correction.
2. The peer-correction technique took much time.³⁸

d. The Procedure of Applying Peer Correction Technique

Faricha Rizqi said there are some stages of teaching writing through peer-correction as follows:

1. Planning

In this stage, the teacher explains how to get information or the data which is needed to develop a text. The easiest way is to gather the data in a orientation, complain and resolution.

2. Drafting

In drafting, the teacher should emphasize on students' consequence on the unity and coherence of their text.

3. Revising & Re-writing

³⁷ Yella Dezas Perdani, "Peer-Correction Technique in Writing Class," English Focus Vol. 4, No. 2 (2020).

³⁸ Ibid.

In revising, the teacher has to make the students know about the mistakes they have made and how correct their mistakes. In this step, the peer correction is used. This technique gives the students an opportunity to know their mistakes and problem. Then they rewrite their text, following the result from the revising activity³⁹

In teaching writing, it is not quite simple to correct the draft. It needs a technique to check the writing text. Peer-correction is useful to help the students to check their draft in pair. Peer-correction gives more chance for the students to talk and give opinions about the writing. It is a technique that enable for them to be responsible in their own writing. The students also can be an expert to give the comments and suggestion for their each pair.

From explanations above, it can be concluded that peer-correction is the technique that help students to correct their own mistakes by pair and develop their writing better. Peer-correction also develops an ability to see the mistakes that occurs in writing. when two or more students work together on correcting each other's work, the discussion was help each other to learn from his or her mistakes by using canva media.

5. Procedure Teaching by Using Canva and Peer Correction

a. Planning

- ✓ Each student opens the Canva application first, on their own smartphone.
- ✓ Then students make groups with their classmates.
- ✓ Each student is given the task of making an announcement text using the Canva Application.

³⁹ Faricha Rizqi, "Improving Students' Ability In Writing Using Peer Correction," Pancaran Pendidikan Vol. 07, no. 2 (2018).

b. Drafting

- ✓ Tasks are carried out individually starting from the selection of topics, titles, contents to the completion of the results of the announcement text.
- ✓ The texts that have been created by students through the Canva application are then given to their colleagues to get suggestions and corrections, including researchers to check the activity and sustainability of the extent to which the task has been carried out.

c. Revising & Re-writing

- ✓ After being corrected, each student returns the assignment belonging to his partner.
- ✓ The final result of the announcement text that has been corrected after being corrected by a colleague.

6. Concept of Textbook

Textbook is a teaching tool (material) which present the subject matter defined by the curriculum. A university textbook is requires to contain the complete overview of the subject, including the theories, as well as to be of a more permanent character.⁴⁰

Textbooks are a key component in most language programs. In some situations they serve as the basis for much of the language input learners receive and the language practice that occurs in the classroom.⁴¹ They may provide the basis for the content of the lessons, the balance of skills taught and the kinds of language practice the students take part in. In other situations, the textbook may serve primarily to supplement the teacher's instruction. For learners, the textbook may provide the major source of contact they have with the language apart from input provided by the teacher. In the case of in experienced teachers textbooks may also serve as a form of teacher training – they provide ideas on how to plan and teach lessons as well as formats that teachers can use.

Based on explanation above, the researcher concluded textbook is a teaching tool (material) which present the subject matter defined by the curriculum. Textbook may provide the basis for the content of the lessons, the balance of skills taught and the kinds of the language practice the students take part in. In other situations, the textbook may serve primarily to supplement the teacher's instruction.

a. Teaching Procedure of Free Writing with Textbook as additional Media

- 1) Pre-teaching
 - a). Observation and review the previous lessons
The activity
- 2) Whilst- Teaching
 - a) Exploration
 - ✓ The teacher shows the topic to the students.
 - ✓ The teacher asks the students what they thinking about the topic and write it.
 - b) Elaboration
 - ✓ The teacher explains what is announcement text.
 - ✓ The teacher explains the generic structure of the announcement text.
 - ✓ The teacher gives the example how to make announcement text.
 - ✓ The teacher gives as assignment to the students.
 - c) Confirmation
 - ✓ The students revised and edit their writing. The students discuss about their work with another students or teacher.
- 3) Post-teaching
In this stage the teacher guide the students to make conclusion about material that they have learned.

b. Advantages and Disadvantages of Using Textbook

1) Advantages of Using Textbook

There are some advantages of using textbook:

- ✓ They provide a clear framework which the teacher and the students know where they are going and what is coming next.
- ✓ Mostly, they serve as a syllabus which includes a carefully planned and balanced selection of language content if it is followed systematically.
- ✓ They provide readymade texts and tasks with possible appropriate level for most of the class, which save time for the teacher.
- ✓ They are the cheapest way of providing learning material for each student.
- ✓ They are convenient packages whose components are bound in order.
- ✓ They are useful guides especially for inexperienced teachers who are occasionally unsure of their language knowledge.
- ✓ They provide autonomy that the students can use them to learn new material, review and monitor progress in order to be less teacher-dependent.⁴²

It can be concluded that textbook has numerous of advantages to be used. However, teacher should utilize additional strategy in the teaching process regarding that textbook has some advantages on its application or its content.

2) Disadvantages of Using Textbook

According to Basturkem, there are some advantages of textbook. They are as follow⁴³

⁴² Penny Ur, A Course in Language Teaching: Practice and Theory (Cambridge: Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 1996). p.183

⁴³ H. Basturkmen, Developing Courses in English for Specific Purposes (New York: Paglave Macmillan, 2010). p.149

- a) The content of examples may be irrelevant or inappropriate for students and they may not reflect the students' needs since textbooks are often written for global markets and often do not reflect the interests and needs of students.
- b) They may contain inauthentic language since texts, dialogues, and other aspects of content tend to be specifically written to incorporate teaching points and are often not representative of real language use.

Despite its advantages, the disadvantages of textbook cannot be pushed aside. The teacher should cover the weakness of applying textbook by using another media, or strategy in order to get students successful in learning. Digital audio story as media is the most suitable for overcoming the issue. It can distribute real language learning especially in learning pronunciation. Henceforth, digital story became the focus area to fulfill the disability of media used by teachers.
