REVIEW OF AL-MASLAHAH AL-MURSALAH THE GOVERNOR OF DKI JAKARTA REGULATION NO. 185 OF 2017 CONCERNING COUNSELING AND HEALTH EXAMINATION FOR PROSPECTIVE BRIDGES

Abstract

The government of DKI Jakarta has made a policy regarding the obligations of every citizen who wants to get married to carry out a medical examination. This is a condition of marriage. This health check is not only about TT immunization, but also includes tests of HIV / AIDS, STIs, and Hepatitis issued by the local Puskesmas or hospital. This certificate is called a marriage-worthy certificate, used to obtain a blank NI. The purpose of this paper is to analyze how is the masalah review of the Regulation of the Governor of DKI Jakarta No. 185 of 2017 concerning Counseling and Health Examination for Bride in the context of developing Islamic family law in Indonesia. This DKI Jakarta Governor Regulation is a preventive effort, in order to close the loopholes for unwanted things, including: preventing infectious diseases between the prospective bride and groom, inhibiting the rate of divorce in DKI Jakarta, preventing domestic violence, preventing maternal and infant deaths caused by due to health factors, and prevent diseases that are passed from parent to child. This policy is in line with the objectives of Islamic law itself or what is called maqāsid syarī'ah, namely for the sake of hifz al-nafs (protecting the souls) of the prospective bride and groom from infectious diseases, protecting the soul of pregnant women as well as the babies. This provides mutual benefit, especially for the prospective bride and their descendants as the nation's next generation.

A. A. Introduction

Marriage is a physical and mental bond between a man and a woman as husband and wife with the aim of forming a happy and eternal family based on the One Godhead. Everyone who gets married must have certain goals. Both material, social, and spiritual. However, not everyone is able to describe what these goals are, then take care of them as a guide for married life.

If the purpose of this marriage is not clear, it will be difficult to be cared for throughout married life. Moreover, if this goal is actually annihilated, fades and disappears, then it is only a matter of waiting for the marriage bond to be destroyed halfway through. Even if a bond has to be passed with no purpose and meaning, then the whole household life will be empty, even tormented, stressed, and depressed. In this condition, the ideal household as a place of refuge and
